To whom it may concern:

Thank you for contacting the School for Graduate Studies regarding the courses we offer through the NYSUT Education and Learning Trust (ELT) program.

I am writing to confirm that all of the courses we offer in partnership with NYSUT ELT are graduate-level and can be used as an elective in the Master of Education (MEd) in Teaching and Learning program. Additionally, these courses may also be used as electives in the following master's programs depending on the program's focus:

- Master of Arts in Adult Learning
- Master of Arts in Community and Economic Development
- Master of Arts in Learning and Emerging Technologies
- Master of Arts in Liberal Studies
- Master of Arts in Social and Public Policy
- Master of Arts in Work and Labor Policy

It is important to note that this information does not change from year to year.

Please contact me at ext. 2267 or pat.ryan@esc.edu if you have questions.

Sincerely,
