- Have a NYSUT Member Account already set up at www.nysut.org

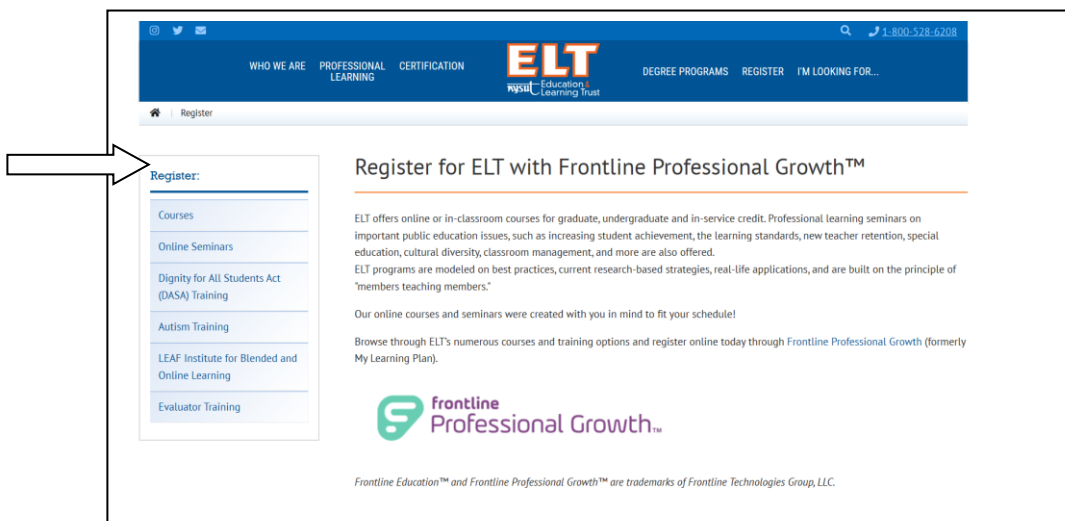

If you do not know your Member I.D., please call the NYSUT Membership Department during business hours at 1-800-342-9810, ext. 6224.

Registration:

- Click on “Register” under “Our Services” on our webpage <http://elt.nysut.org>

- Click on “Courses”:

- Select from a number of courses under the Register column to search Frontline for a course.

The screenshot shows the ELT website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for 'WHO WE ARE', 'PROFESSIONAL LEARNING', 'CERTIFICATION', 'DEGREE PROGRAMS', 'REGISTER', and 'I'M LOOKING FOR...'. Below this is a 'Register:' sidebar menu with a 'Courses' link highlighted. The main content area is titled 'Courses' and contains text about academic standards and options for in-service vs. graduate credit. It also includes a 'Certification' section and a link to the '2020 Spring Course Catalog'.

- Open the Advanced Search the catalog in Frontline which will allow you to search by instructor, by title or by region (Program is region).

The screenshot displays the search interface for the NYS United Teachers Education and Learning Trust catalog. It features a search bar with a 'Search' button and a 'Search Options' section with dropdown menus for 'Program', 'Start Date', and 'End Date'. Below this is the 'Advanced Search Options' section, which includes dropdown menus for 'Category' and 'Location', and a text input field for 'Instructor'. There is also a checkbox for 'Show Year Long Activities?'. The search results section shows a list of results, with the first result being '1. Methods and Materials for Teaching Students with Disabilities (EDUC 503)'. The result includes details about the program, dates, and a 'Starting Today' badge. It also provides a description of the course, required text, and important information regarding registration eligibility.

- After selecting your course, be sure to read through the description, book information, etc.

Activity Details

Methods and Materials for Teaching Students with Disabilities (EDUC 503)
 EDUC 503 Mercy College
 Study and analysis of effective teaching strategies for the education of students with disabilities. The students will identify strengths, and discuss methods of individualizing instruction and collaboration. They will examine learning processes, lesson and unit planning across the curriculum, motivation, communication and classroom management in order to stimulate and sustain student interest, cooperation, and achievement. Students will discuss effective ways of partnering with parents and other staff members.

Required Text: Strategies for Teaching Learners with Special Needs, 10th edition, ISBN #978132026156.

Books can be purchased at your favorite bookstore.

Approved by NYS Education Department for Students with Disabilities (SWD). Individuals pursuing this additional certificate will apply on their own to the State Education Department, must pass the Content Specialty Test for Students with Disabilities as well as complete the three-hour autism workshop.

IMPORTANT:
 Students are not eligible to register for a Mercy sponsored course through NY BUT ELT or UPT if:
 -they have already completed 18 Mercy College credits through NYSUT ELT or UPT;
 -they are currently matriculated into a Mercy College degree or Advanced Certificate Program,
 -they are on a financial hold with Mercy College, or
 -they were academically dismissed by Mercy College.
ELT is not responsible for reimbursement of tuition for students who register for any Mercy courses if they meet any of the above criteria.
